The American Intelligence Journal is published three times per year. Each issue generally runs about 100 pages and is distributed to NMIA members and to subscribers, as well as to key Government officials, members of Congress and their staffs, and university professors and libraries. Contributors include intelligence community leaders and professionals as well as academicians and others with interesting and informative perspectives. The Journal publishes leadership views on policy, planning, systems and organizational issues, and a variety of other topical perspectives and divergent analyses, within the framework of being constructively educational. Subscriptions are $25.00 per year for three issues. For subscriptions contact: American Intelligence Journal, Pentagon Station, P.O. Box 46583, Washington, D.C. 20050-6583. For articles, contact: The Editor AIJ, ISF Box 6712, Falls Church, VA 22040.
